Corporate Profile

GREETINGS

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your continued support and patronage.

Since our inception in 1947, we have played a major role in fields such as manufacturing and housing, and contributed to industry growth as a specialized trading company dealing with production equipment and consumer products. We appreciate the support and patronage from all of our valued stakeholders including our business partners, shareholders, current and former employees, who have made it possible for us to celebrate our 60th anniversary.

Our industry, economy, and society have changed and expanded greatly, as symbolized by the word “globalization”. Meanwhile, there are several issues that need to be addressed by company management, such as IT progress, growing recognition of environmental issues, corporate social responsibility, etc.

In response to changing times and environments, our company will strive to further strengthen our proposal and sales abilities in each field by focusing on our three core business fields of production goods, housing equipment and materials, and household products so that we can excel as a specialized trading company. Furthermore, we will be proactive towards our corporate social responsibilities in fields such as compliance and the environment.

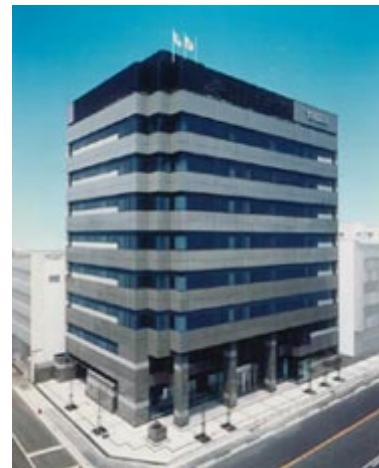

We resolve to make further efforts to gain trust and go “Beyond Expectations” of society and our business partners. We look forward to your continuous patronage and support for our activities.
